

Bernalillo Growers' Market Regulations – 2005 Season

PURPOSE

- To provide locally grown and processed foods to Bernalillo and outlying communities
- To provide a consistent and supportive market environment that enables local growers, producers, and processors to sell their products
  - To provide products with nutritional and cultural value
- To support small-scale agriculture and community outreach efforts within New Mexico
  - To educate consumers about local food and culture

LOCATION

West side of Camino del Pueblo, South of Our Lady of Sorrows Church in Bernalillo, NM

DATE/TIME

Fridays 4-7pm, July 8 - October 29

Vendors are expected to arrive between 3-3:30pm to prepare their market spaces

FEES

Seasonal Fee $25 (one-time only)

Please make checks payable to Bernalillo Growers' Market and return checks & applications to:

Emily MacLeod

PO Box 674

Corrales, NM 87048

MANAGEMENT TEAM

Ann Rustebakke (Market Coordinator) 867-2485

Emily MacLeod (Market Coordinator) 550-0234

Charles Shaheed (WIC Program Coordinator) 896-2230

SPACE ASSIGNMENTS

- Permanent Spaces will be assigned only upon receipt of the $25 Seasonal Market Fee.
  - Permanent spaces will only be reserved until 3:30pm each Friday. After 3:30pm, permanent spaces are pooled with temporary spaces and assigned to incoming vendors as needed.

MARKET RULES

- Absolutely NO resale of products will be tolerated
- Permits and/or licenses pertaining to the sale of plants, fresh cut flowers, and processed goods will need to be obtained through the NM Department of Agriculture or the NM Health Department. The Bernalillo Growers' Market will not provide these permits to vendors.
  - Atleast 75% of ingredients in processed goods must be grown/raised in New Mexico.
- Market Management Team has the authority to deny entrance to any vendor who violates the purpose and rules of the market.
  - Respect and professionalism should be maintained by vendors during market hours.
- Any concerns regarding the market should be directed to the Market Management Team.